CHINESE SHRIMP CAMP DISAPPEARING IN MONTH NO TRACE WILL BE LEFT

One of California's landmarks, the old Chinese shrimp village, located between the Standard Oil refinery and Winehaven, is fast disappearing. Of the populous village that existed three years ago before the state legislature against the dry shrimp industry, only one house remains that is intact. The cabins of the Chinese, without care and attention, deserted and unoccupied for three years, have gradually fallen to rack and ruin. Local Italians and Greeks have been engaged for some time past in hauling away the wood from the cabins. In a month more there will hardly be a trace of Shrimp Camp, which is known far beyond the confines of Contra Costa county.

Alleged Forger, Wanted Here, to Fight Charges

R. H. Blackburne, wanted by the officers in nearly every city around the bay, on a charge of passing a fictitious check, has not yet made a confession of his alleged misdoings to the San Francisco police, according to a statement made last night by Chief of Police Charles Walker, who took a trip across the bay to confer with the officials of the metropolis regarding the case. From present indications, Blackburne will fight the fictitious check passing charge placed against him. The San Francisco officials have made up their minds to prosecute him.

LOCAL COUPLE TO WED NEXT TUES.

Announcement has been made that the nuptials of Miss Sadie Gorman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Gorman, resident of 1804 Norvin avenue, and George Kerrigan, local Santa

OFFICER IS ATTACKED BY PRISONER

Attempts to Get Revolver from Inspector Phillips in Break for Liberty.

When Dave Patten, picked up for drunkenness on Monday night, attacked Inspector Phillips, his arresting officer, Phillips was compelled to wage a desperate fight to keep from being killed by his infuriated prisoner.

Before the fracas had ended Phillips had been knocked down twice, and his assailant was foiled to the ground several times.

When Phillips arrested Patten for using vulgar language and being drunk, Patten had apparently made up his mind to submit without a struggle. When in front of Clark's undertaking parlors on Fourth street Patten decided he would not be taken to the police station.

He suddenly hit Phillips, and knocked the officer down. He quickly followed, in which Patten tried repeatedly to get possession of Phillips' revolver, stating, "You'll never take me. I'll kill you first."

Patten appeared before Police Judge Lindsey yesterday, pleaded guilty to a charge of being drunk, and was sentenced to serve a term of 30 days in the county jail.

Investigation of his record shows that he has served short terms in workhouses and jails in New Orleans, Portland, Ore.; Houston, Tex.; and other places. He prides himself on being a "New Orleans wharf rat."

Leaves Faucet Running--Floods House

When Mrs. John Shannon went out shopping yesterday afternoon and left a faucet in the kitchen running, she found the floor and basement of her home at 525 Fifth street flooded on her return. There was three feet of water in the basement, and the water was several inches deep in the kitchen and dining room.

Are you a working man? Then vote for Curran, Snee and Ogborn.

G. A. R. LADIES TO GIVE TEA

The Ladies of the G. A. R. will give a patriotic tea at the home of Mrs. G. W. Vance, 227 Seventeenth street, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. A patriotic program will be given. Refreshments will be served.

Friday, April 23, the order will give a benefit party in Fraternal Hall. Beautiful prizes will be given and refreshments served. Everyone is cordially invited.

SOCIALIST CLASS TO MEET TONIGHT

The meeting of the Socialist study class will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in Social Hall. The public is invited to attend.

What do you think of Ogborn, Snee and Curran's attitude on the City Hall?

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT REDMEN'S MEETING

There was a big attendance at the regular business session of Omaha Tribe of Red Men, held in Pythian Castle last night. Business of a routine nature was transacted.

VOTE ON CITY HALL SITE AT LAST--AT DANCE

A Candidates' ball will be given by the Richmond Club Saturday night, April 24, in the club house. The candidates for the city council will be asked to act as floor managers.

A novel feature of the affair, and one that is certain to arouse a great deal of interest, is the straw vote on sites for the City Hall that is to be taken among the dancers.

Mrs. Schram, chairman of the committee on arrangements.

GRAND JURY TO TAKE UP EXPO. BILLS TODAY

County Auditor to Appear Before Auditor, Johnston Not Yet O. K. a Them.

County Auditor A. N. Sullenger will appear before the Grand Jury today in an endeavor to have that body withdraw its objections to the various Exposition bills and allow him to audit them. Sullenger stated yesterday that he worked for Davis Bros. for a number of years and knows that firm to be just in its charges.

The Antioch Lumber Company, he declared, he had also had many dealings with and that he had always found that company to be reliable.

"I believe that the Grand Jury will lift the ban put on the bills," stated Sullenger yesterday. "The amount is large and the business concerns are out considerable money by fulfilling their contracts. I believe that the firms are just and that the bills should be allowed."

District Attorney Thomas D. Johnston has not yet rendered an opinion as to the legal status of the matter, but is expected to do so soon.

For the past few days Foreman E. B. Anderson of the 1915 Grand Jury has been busy going over the books of the water commission of Richmond.

I. D. E. S. HAS BIG SESSION

With Grand Supreme President S. Costa of Hayward in attendance, Counsel No. 61, I. D. E. S., held one of the most important meetings in its history last Sunday in the Curry theater at Martinez. Four new members were initiated, a banquet served and a general good time enjoyed.

An important announcement was made during the afternoon to the effect that a silver crown to be used in the baptismal ceremonies of the order had been secured. This will be formally dedicated to the lodge next Saturday when services will be held in St. Catherine's church, to be followed by a procession to M. A. C. hall, where a general good time is scheduled to take place.

A committee consisting of J. B. Costa, A. E. Mattos, Dan Regello, M. S. Ayala and A. P. Silva has been appointed to arrange for the affair on Saturday. The crown is covered with jewels and is one of the finest in the state.

The crown services are the beginning of preparations for the Holy Ghost festival which will be held next month. This is to be the greatest of the many which the Portuguese residents have held.

LADIES' AID TO HOLD RUMMAGE SALE

The Ladies' Aid of the Wesley Methodist church will hold a rummage sale April 20 in the building formerly occupied by the Star Grill, 710 Macdonald.

DEMONSTRATION SOCIAL AT WESLEY CHURCH

There will be a demonstration social in the parlors of the Wesley M. E. church tomorrow afternoon between the hours of 4 and 5 p. m. Refreshments will be served, and all women of the city are invited.

JAIL WOMAN FOR HOTEL BURGLARY

May Evans, Sister of Della Fox, Admits Taking Trunk, Jewelry and Alarm Clock.

Arrested and charged with vagrancy, Mrs. May Evans, sister of Della Fox, complaining witness against Kenneth Johnson, was about to receive a reprimand and a warning in the police court, yesterday morning, when it was discovered that she had burglarized the room of Frank A. Lorber in the Colorado Rooming House.

She was charged with second degree burglary.

The Evans woman was arrested early yesterday morning. She was intoxicated.

Later in the day Mrs. Cole, proprietor of the Colorado rooming house, reported the robbery of Lorber's room. A pair of trousers, two diamond pins, an alarm clock, a number of neckties, $27 in coin and a number of other articles had been taken.

The jewelry was found in the possession of the Evans woman. Officer Eganman was detailed to locate the other stolen property. He found the stuff in a saloon. Other evidence was gathered by Eganman. Chief Walker declared yesterday that all credit belonged to Officer Eganman.

Mrs. Evans had admitted the theft, according to Walker.

BOARD TO PASS WALNUT BILL

That the Board of Supervisors will pass the bill of Eli Hutchinson when the board meets next Monday, is the consensus of opinion about the court house at Martinez, and from what can be gleaned the rumors come direct from the meeting of the board, which took place last Friday.

It was thought action would be taken on the bill last Friday, but the board either forgot or neglected to take any steps as the bill still remains without the necessary signatures.

It is impossible for Fair Commissioner John Birmingham to return the walnuts, so there is nothing left for the county to do but pay the bill.

LAST DAY TO FILE PETITIONS

Tomorrow the time limit for the filing of petitions for councilmanic positions will expire. Under the law April 15 is the last day in which petitions can be filed. Unless nomination petitions are filed, the names of aspirants to the council cannot get on the ballot.

Although there have been many rumors about several more men coming out for the council at the last minute, this is extremely doubtful. It is hardly thought there will be any more candidates than those who have already entered the race.

NO CIRCUSES ON SUNDAY, PLEA

Rev. P. H. Peterson, pastor of the First Methodist church, has stated that he will present a petition to the council at its meeting on Monday night, asking that that body prohibit circuses and carnivals from appearing in this city on Sunday. It is understood that the Good Government League is backing the move. Peterson claims to have several hundred names on the petition.

Michael O'Rourke, chief engineer on Lightship No. 23, Astoria, Ore., has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Geaney, at her home, corner of Second street and Macdonald avenue.

Sixteenth Street Tenth, 3rd Lesson

Pressure Already Brought to Bear to Kill Graft Expose

Once when the question of all macadam and bitulthie pavement was before the city council, Follett said with bitter emphasis:

"Why, the grass will grow through that cheap pavement."

It was playing the old game, of course, crying down the cheap pavement with the narrow margin of profit, in favor of bitulthie with the profit that ranges up to 50 per cent. From all appearances it was the asphalt trest speaking.

A LITTLE CONTRADICTION. In mild contradiction we call to the witness stand the modest little morning glory.

Sixteenth street is paved with bitulthie. It cost the property owners a pretty sum. It is a rotten job, to put it very plainly.

THE MORNING GLORY. The morning glory is growing in THAT PAVEMENT between Chambers and Bluff. If you don't believe us, go down and look at it, early this morning, before some asphalt solicitor sweeps it.

That little flower has grown clear through the supposedly solid rock base and through the asphalt finish. It is, indeed, a hardy flower that can grow through rolled rock and then through asphalt. But it is no trick for the morning glory to work its way through the loosely laid pavement of Sixteenth street.

Look over Thirteenth street, between Barrett and Chandler. That is all macadam. It is the best example of the cheapest pavement in the city. It was laid right, specified, done over, observed. It is as good a street as necessary for Thirteenth street.

Note this carefully: It cost the property owners of Sixteenth street some $10,000 MORE FOR THE PAVING OF THEIR STREET than did the same distance on Thirteenth street.

READ IT OVER. Read that over again. Then go down today and look over the two streets. You will quickly see for yourself.

You see that was a time when one of Nature's wild flowers stooped to a little so-called muckraking. The morning glory should be uprooted along with a square foot of Sixteenth street paving and shoved to the city council.

THE ATTITUDE. In the thorough and careful investigation that has been made by the Daily News in the preparation of these articles, showing up the monumental street graft of Richmond, we have found that the attitude of the lot owners is generally one of hopeless bewilderment. Few of them know little of the proceedings that are preliminary to the laying of pavement.

REALIZE GRAFT. They feel that they are being or have been skinned, but don't know how, or if they do, don't know what to do to combat their exploiters.

SOMETIMES EASY. Sometimes it is very easy to get property owners to sign up for asphalt pavement with little apparent underhand work.

TIME, TENTH STREET. The property owners of Tenth street don't want bitulthie pavement. Few of them can afford it. They point to Thirteenth street, even to Clinton, paved with macadam.

DIDN'T EXPLAIN. Asphalt solicitors last year went on the hunt for names of people who wanted bitulthie. Now these solicitors, say lot owners of Tenth street, did not explain that they were working in the interest of the asphalt. They merely asked the people if they wanted Tenth street paved.

WANTED STREET. Practically all of the property owners wanted the street paved. They signed their names. Later they found that they had signed up for bitulthie pavement.

In at least one specific case a woman property owner signed up for both bitulthie and macadam. The asphalt solicitor did not, of course, explain his mission to a lady signer.

The Tenth street people circulated a petition. They presented it to the city council. It was tabled. Apparently the majority of the city council was very anxious to see that the street was laid with asphalt. Why?

TO PROTECT. Now the property owners of Tenth street don't know just what to do. Some of them have decided to wait until notices are posted that the street is to be improved and then protest.

That means another long delay.

TO EMPHASIZE. We want to emphasize this jockeying for asphalt, this constant pressure and skirmishing for the high priced, high profit, asphalt.

And we want to emphasize that all macadam--Richmond Standard macadam--is worthless when it is laid like Main street. But when laid according to the specifications it is a good pavement.

SEWERS AGAIN. Yesterday residents of the East Richmond boulevard district requested us to say a little something more about sewers.

One woman who lives on Alameda avenue, near Bonquet avenue, was promised $5.10 for the laying of the sewer on San Pablo avenue, over a block from her lot. It is impossible for her to use that sewer. She paid for it, however.

OPEN SEWAGE. A dairy on San Pablo avenue and Bonquet doesn't use the sewer. The fifth from the stables and the house runs into an open stream. Kicks have been filed with the council, with the usual result.

AND TOMORROW. There will be another article tomorrow. If you have been skinned on your street work you should read it.

Pressure has been brought to bear on the Daily News to prevent the further exposing of paving graft. We shall fight this out to the finish, however.

Stay with us, and the herd of the specifications dodgers will be shoved into the past.

WINNER OF BIG R.R. SUIT IS INSANE

Alex Wilson, a cripple, who has been residing in a cabin in the rear of the Builders' Exchange, went suddenly insane yesterday morning and Daniel Barton, a nearby resident, turned in a hurry up call to the police. Sergeant Barry, Officers Betts and Kraemer and Fireman Ed Bailey responded to Barton's call, and Wilson was taken into custody. He was in bed at the time the officers entered his home.

Wilson seems to have lost complete control of his mental faculties. He is well acquainted with all the officers, but failed to recognize them when they took him into custody.

He was taken to Martinez yesterday afternoon by Officer Kraemer. He will be examined by a lunacy commission there.

Several years ago Wilson won a damage suit for $24 against a railroad company. It is supposed that this money is gone. Wilson told the officers he was flat broke.

PLEADS GUILTY TO BATTERY, PAYS FINE

Douglas Moore, a teamster, and son of Thomas Moore, pleaded guilty to a charge of battery on his appearance in the police court yesterday. He was fined $15, which he paid.

On Monday afternoon Moore and an Italian laborer had an argument, which ended abruptly when the teamster hit the foreigner. The argument was over where Moore should dump some loads of dirt on a sewer job on Castro avenue. The Italian is in the employ of the Chambers-Hasty Company.

THE NEW ORDER

Willis has decided not to run for re-election to the city council. Good-by, Joe. You're a wise man.

Follett saw a great light some time ago. Only remains Hartnett, of the incumbents. The wise ones say that he is the strongest of the three. That won't be very strong.

There are still plenty of candidates in the race. But it is hard to figure out what three the push is going to support. Will two of them be Arnold and Hartnett?

It will, if Arnold gets by the primaries, which is conceded to be pretty doubtful. Hartnett may get past the primaries, inasmuch as some three, besides the labor candidates, must get by the primaries.

Who will be Hartnett's running mates is hard to figure out. The opponents of the labor ticket are hoping now, not to elect three men, but one. And that one is Hartnett.

A grand little campaign is going to be made for him. To elect Hartnett, the labor vote will have to be split.

If enough working people split their ticket Hartnett may have a chance. It is a very slim one.

The working people of Richmond, the small home owners, and some of the big taxpayers, for that matter, are disgusted with the present complexion of the council.

Rotten streets, blind sewers, the City Hall scandal—only about one per cent of the population is in favor of such things—and that one per cent consists of those that profit by them.

There is a strong sentiment of dissatisfaction in all parts of the city. There is a strong sentiment for some new ideals in city government. There are people who want to be proud of Richmond, to see it grow substantially, people who believe that boosting consists of working for the future good of the city—good streets, a properly situated City Hall, and the like.

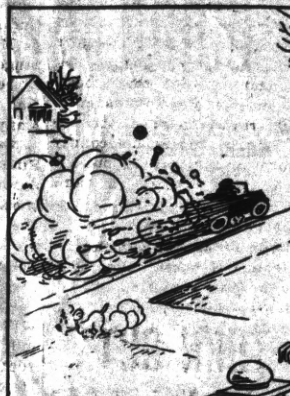

The labor candidates, we believe, are truly representative of that new spirit.

They should poll a tremendous vote. All present indications are that they will sweep into office on the crest of a gigantic wave of popular feeling.

April 26th is the date for the Primary election. That will confirm these lines.

ENFORCE 11-HOUR DAY

NEW BERN, N. C., April 13.—The local plant of the John L. Roper Lumber Company has issued an order that the hours be extended from 10 to 11. That the employees of this non-union concern may make no mistake as to wages, Superintendent Sutton, in his announcement, states:

"The rate per day you will adjust so that the same amount will be paid for 11 hours that we have been paying for 10 hours at this date. From this you will understand from the following illustration: That a man who has been rated at $1.25 with the discount of 10 per cent making his present rate $1.125 per day of 10 hours, that the same rate will stand, but that more hours will be worked; thus giving an employee rated as above $1.12 1/2 for 11 hours."

The "10 per cent discount" mentioned by the superintendent refers to a 10 per cent wage reduction last October.

CONFIDENCE MAN DUPES AUSTRIAN

SELBY, April 13.—Victimized by a countryman, John Perich, an Austrian laborer employed at the Selby Smelting Works, has sought the assistance of the Vallejo police in the effort to recover $480, with which he had parted as the result of the representations of a crook who could not even be said to be clever, so glaring was the fraud.

Perich, who had recently been paid $500 owed him by a former partner, went to Vallejo last Tuesday and fell in with a fellow Austrian who told a wonderful tale of an uncle's death—an uncle of great wealth who had passed away in London, leaving large sums for churches. The smooth talker was also a beneficiary under the will, but was unable to draw his money because he had not the wherewithal to go to London. If he could, only find some one to advance the cash for this trip he would divide his inheritance with him.

Perich proved an easy dupe. Accompanied by his new friends he went to the Crockett bank, a branch of the Bank of Pinedale, and drew out his good $480.

"FIGHTING FOR FREEDOM"

PORTLAND, Ore., April 13.—"Fighting for freedom" is the reason the firm of Lipman, Wolfe & Co. gives unionists for not recognizing organized labor. The workers ask this concern to pay a living wage, and the claims of "freedom" are punctured by the publication of rules governing the Association of the Lipman, Wolfe & Co. Employees, which provides: All employees shall belong to the association; all dues and assessments shall be deducted in the office from the salary of each member, and that only heads of departments shall hold office in the association.

BIG BILL AT THE PANTAGES

Three headliners on one bill is offered the patrons of the Pantages theater, in the new program which opened at that playhouse Sunday. The bill has seven features that vary from athletics to dramatic playlet and music, comedy and dancing. First of the big headline features is the Tasmanian-Van Diemans, recognized as one of the foremost acrobatic troupes in vaudeville. Their aerial feats and strength tests are unequalled by any performers anywhere in the world. The troupe is composed of young men and women. The second feature is the Great Lester, a ventriloquist. He has been with a fund of stories. Still another headline attraction is that of Charles Gill and his players in "The Devil, the Servant and the Man," a dramatic playlet of unique theme. Mr. Gill, who won recognition on the legitimate stage before entering vaudeville, is seen in a strong role. Miss Elsie De Wolfe is prominent in his supporting company. "A Night in Venice" is the title of a delightful musical offering by the Bernivell brothers. Variety, cleverness and comedy is to be found in the offering of Green and Parker, a duo of delightful fun-makers. Harrison Green and Kathryn Parker are well known to Oakland players, as this is their home. The Juggling Barretts have an act that is all novelty and surprises. Keystone comedy motion pictures completes the bill.

RAILROADS BROKE PROMISES, SAY UNIONS

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 13.—As part of their campaign against the repeal of the full crew law for railroads, representatives of the railroad brotherhoods have made public the methods employed by the railroads in their successful fight last year to have the Missouri full crew law repealed by a referendum vote. The workers show that the long ballot was "loaded" with constitutional amendments, and then the cry was heard all over the state: "Vote 'no' on everything and be safe." The farmer was promised lower rates, the manufacturer was told supplies would be purchased, the worker was told wages would be raised, and the public was assured that a general era of prosperity would follow.

BROWN ADMITS HIS BURGLARY TO COURT

Admitting that he had forced the rear window of Week's store in Antioch on the morning of February 27, 1914, Brown pleaded guilty to burglary. He will be sentenced next Friday morning at 10 o'clock by Judge Latimer.
Brown lived in the vicinity of Antioch for two years and bore a good reputation. He used a chair to pry open the window and then after entering the store broke open the cash register in the grocery department and secured $18. He also found some more money stowed away in a box.

RECEIVES WORD FROM GERMAN ARMY

Mrs. Ed Dirks, a resident of 614 Main street, has received a letter from her brother, Adolph G. Goegge, who is fighting with the German army in Northern France, telling of the hardships he and thousands of his comrades have undergone in the winter campaign.
Goegge states the Germans made substantial gains all through the winter, and that there was every reason to believe the campaign would ultimately be successful.
Up until the "Hundred Days" written he had not slept in a bed for many months, but had unrolled his blankets and bunked wherever the army stopped to camp for the night. The letter was exactly a month in reaching Richmond from France.

Many friends and members of the First Congregational church enjoyed a social evening in the reception room of the new wednesday last night. Shannon and Miss Gladys McCausland; vocal solo, Mr. Pearson of San Francisco; recitation, Mrs. Lulu Roe; violin solo, Morris Jasven; vocal solo, Mrs. H. L. Shannon.

SPORTING GOULASH

"Mickey" Childs is now convinced that St. Mary's has the fastest team in the bushes. Childs is about the happiest bird in the land since St. Mary's beat Healy's bunch Sunday by the score of 4 to 2.

After perusing the scores of the games in which Martinez has participated, after playing St. Mary's, after beating the Olympics and after trimming Louis Lowenberg's San Rafael nine, we are fully convinced that the Elks are the best team in the bushes.

It is expected that the biggest crowd of the season will be on hand to see the Elks perform against the Olympics again next Sunday. There are no counter attractions.

Any effort to legislate Sunday baseball off of the map in Richmond will meet with the determined opposition of all good fans.

This "Babe" Wunlich is touted as a wonder by all who have seen him box. When he and Plug Milne tangle there will be some regular milt slinging.

"HYPOCRITES" IS FEATURE FILM
AT THE RICHMOND

Unless you look at life through glasses fitted with lenses of wide vision, you will be shocked at the Richmond theater today and tomorrow where the widely discussed film "Hypocrites," will be the principal offering. Unique in conception and execution, "Hypocrites" discloses heretofore unknown possibilities in the motion picture world.

In four parts it deals with the status of a nude woman carved by a monk sculptor in the old days and of his subsequent troubles in showing his work of art to the world. The feature of this play is the absolute nude posing of Marguerite Edwards of Berkeley, who a few years ago won a prize as the most beautifully and proportionately formed girl in America. Prices for this production, today and tomorrow will be 10 cents for children in all parts of the house and for adults in the gallery and 20 cents for adults in the orchestra.

BALL PARK MAY BE LOST TO MARTINEZ

MARTINEZ, April 13.—Hanging by a thread is the future of baseball in Martinez today as a result of the action of C. M. Wooster, who has purchased the Thomas property upon which the diamond is located. Judge C. H. Hayden, acting for Wooster, notified Joe McNamara that it would cost $10 per Sunday to lease the grounds in the future.

Joe believes that to pay this rental besides meeting the expenses of his ball team is a task too much for any man to try. Joe has not given up hope as yet and is trying to have the rent cut down so as to insure games during the season.

Joe is now dickering with St. Mary's College and will probably have that team here next Sunday. He will know by tonight. Duarte has been released and Joe has secured Sweeney, formerly of Petaluma, to play short in place of Buchanan, who has not been released, but who may be played in the field.

Buchanan has shown considerable with the stick and Joe is anxious to hold on to him.

After the beating that Winehaven received from the Concord team Sunday, a few more of the boys flying under the Pinkerton banner are liable to have the tinware applied.

Those fight fans who thirst for a knockout or two during a fight card are liable to have their desires realized at the next boxing show to be staged here a week from tomorrow night.

Dotson will go up against the hardest man of his career when he wrestles Young Gotch at the rink Thursday night. Gotch is about the classiest performer that ever overpowered Richmond. He has a record that speaks well for his physical attainments in the squared circle.

GOTCH WILL ARRIVE HERE TODAY

Young Gotch, light heavyweight champion of the Middle West, who is to meet Dotson, the Oklahoma giant, in a wrestling match at the rink tomorrow night, is expected to arrive in Richmond today. Gotch has been training over in San Francisco. Dotson has been working out in Berkeley and is in tip top shape.

FOUR BOUTS
NOW ARRANGED

Four of six four-round bouts that will be staged at the rink a week from Thursday night have been arranged for by Matchmaker R. S. Richmond.

Battling Jack Albright and Joe Purdy, welters, last night agreed to step four rounds. The other matches are Kid Lewis and Al Mejia, bantams; Young Butch and Frank Brash, featherweights; and Plug Milne and "Babe" Wunlich, lightweights.

DEVEREAUX TO PLAY THIRD

"Brick" Devereaux, captain of the Elks, will play third base hereafter. The scrappy leader says there are many good games left in him yet, so he will be given his chance on the infield.

"Dutch" Rhuemann proved too fast a boy to stay in bush ball. He has been grabbed by the Black Hawk club of the Western Tri State league. He left for his new berth with the Idaho club before last Sunday's game. Conger has been shifted from third to short. He played a star game on the short field last Sunday.

Devereaux in action will be a big drawing card. It is admitted by all that he is not as fast as he was several years ago, but what the old boy knows in there will tide him over many of the rough spots that younger players can't handle.

We wish to announce that we have secured the lease on the store formerly occupied by Stanford E. Philpott, at 605 Macdonald Avenue. This enables us to carry out the plans we had in view for Richmond when we first entered business here. We propose to carry a larger and better assortment of shoes than was ever before shown in this city, and values that are not surpassed in any of the large cities of California.
Those who have been our patrons during the few months we have been located here will no doubt bear willing testimony of our square dealing and rejoice with us in our opportunity to reach the goal of our ambition—THE BEST SHOE STORE IN CONTRA COSTA COUNTY.
Just when we will move into our new location will be made known to you through the columns of the local papers.
OUR STOCK IS NOW FULLY REPRESENTED BY THE VERY NEWEST STYLES AND LEATHERS IN OUR PREREVENUAL $3.00 CUSTOM MADE SHOES FOR MEN AND WOMEN AND OUR OWN INCOMPARABLE VALUES AT $2.50
WE CARRY A FULL ASSORTMENT OF SHOES FOR GIRLS AND BOYS.
